3) On meads and lawns we trip like fauns
Like fillies, kids, or lambs
We have no twinge to make us cringe
Or crinkle in the hams
When some disease doth on us seize
With one consent go we
To jig it and jerk it, caper and ferk it
Under the greenwood tree

4) When we're well fired and almost tired
That night is drawing on
And that we must confess as just our dancing day is done
The night is spent in sweet content
Dreaming once more that we
Merrily sport it, kiss it and court it
Under the greenwood tree
