

WHEN HE SEES ME lyrics

I stick with real things Usually facts and figures
When information's in its place I minimize the guessing game
Guess what?
I don't like guessing games Or when I feel things
Before I know the feelings
How am I supposed to operate If I'm just tossed around by fate?
Like on an unexpected date?

With a stranger who might talk too fast Or ask me questions about myself
Before I've decided that He can ask me questions about myself
He might sit too close
Or call the waiter by his first name Or eat Oreos
But eat the cookie before the cream But what scares me the most What scares me the most

Is what if when he sees me What if he doesn't like it?
What if he runs the other way and I can't hide from it?
What happens then?

So, I'm just fine, inside my shell-shaped mind This way I get the best view
So that when he sees me, I want him too

I'm not defensive! I'm simply being cautious
I can't risk reckless dating Due to my miscalculating why
A certain suitor stands in line
I've seen in movies Most made for television
You cannot be too careful When it comes to sharing your life
I could end up a miserable wife

Sorry girls, but he could be criminal Some sort of psychopath
Who escaped from an institution Somewhere where they don't have girls
He could have masterminded some way to find me He could be color blind
How untrustworthy is that? He could be less than kind
Or even worse, he could be very nice, have lovely eyes
And make me laugh, come out of hiding What do I do with that?

Oh, God
What if when he sees me I like him and he knows it?
What if he opens up a door And I can't close it? What happens then?
If when he holds me My heart is set in motion
I'm not prepared for that I'm scared of breaking open
But still I can't help from hoping To find someone to talk to
Who likes the way I am Someone who when he see me wants to again
